Dear Mr. Poojari and Mr. Way,

On behalf of the entire Stanford Graduate School of Business India Service Learning Trip team, we want to send our most sincere thank you for spending time with us during our trip through India. We had an incredibly memorable and impactful experience exploring the diversity of innovative approaches aimed at improving the delivery of healthcare, and the trip would not have been the same without the generosity of our gracious host organizations.

Walking through the slums of Dharavi, our eyes were opened to the bleak contrast within the city of Mumbai as well as to the incredible economy occurring within the area. In many ways, this experience was transformational, and it is something that will forever be etched into our memories. We hope and desire that this transformation will continue to echo through our lives and the lives of our trip participants.

We are sincerely grateful to you for allowing us to experience the remarkable work that you are doing. As we get accustomed to our lives back in Northern California, we will hold in our hearts the memories and reflections from this incredible journey. India is a beautiful country, with wonderful people and a rich history, and we appreciate the opportunity to visit.

Thank you for sharing this experience with us and teaching us so much while we were with you. We look forward to a continued relationship with you and your organization, and wish you a happy and healthy year ahead.

All the best,
